Riposte: Pakistan had one hand on the win, then Paul van Meekeren struck twice in three balls and suddenly 147 felt like a mountain, with wickets tumbling rapidly. AP

Firestorm: Pakistan stumbled from 98 for 2 to 114 for 7 in a chase of 148 against the Netherlands in Colombo before Faheem Ashraf dragged the 2009 champion home. With the game slipping away, he lit up the finish, smashing three sixes and two fours in Logan van Beek's 19th over to turn panic into victory. AFP
