

10th

Winning start: Kamindu Mendis made Ireland pay for a ragged night in the field, anchoring Sri Lanka's late surge with a 19-ball 44 in Colombo as the co-host raced from 86-4 to 163-6 after Ireland spilled five chances. The runs proved decisive, Sri Lanka sealing a 20-run win in its T20 World Cup opener. AP

11th

'Feat'ful day: Michael Leask (in pic) and George Munsey powered Scotland to a commanding 73-run win over World Cup debutant Italy at Eden Gardens, Munsey's 84 driving a record 207-4 and Scotland past 200 at a men's T20 World Cup for the first time, before Leask tore through the chase with a superb 4-17. RITU RAJ KONWAR