

» WORLD VIEW OF THE FORTNIGHT

« I am not a trans-woman, I am a girl. I was raised as a girl, I grew up as a girl, and the people in my village have always known me as a girl.

— Olympic boxing champion Imane Khelif in an interview with French sports daily L'Equipe »

« I feel ready to fight for a World Championship, and whether we have that tag as favourites above us or not, it doesn't change my approach one single bit. — Formula One driver George Russell of Mercedes, believing he has been handed a car ready to win the World Championship »

22nd

Los Angeles Lakers forward LeBron James was selected to his 22nd consecutive NBA All-Star

Game, an unmatched streak that underlines his grip on the league even in his 21st season. At 41, James was named among the Western Conference reserves by NBA head coaches.

1st

Anahat Singh clinched her maiden PSA Bronze-level title after winning the Squash on Fire Open tournament in Washington. The Indian World No. 31 stunned top seed and world No. 10 Georgina Kennedy of England 12-10, 11-5, 11-7 in a 26-minute final to clinch her maiden World event title. It is the biggest title of young Anahat's career, and the 15th overall on the PSA Tour for the Indian world No 31 in 26 tournaments.

WINNING WAYS

Romania's Sorana Cirstea (right) clinched the Transylvania Open with a straight sets 6-0, 6-2 victory in just 63 minutes over Britain's Emma Raducanu. The young Brit went into the match looking for only her second piece of silverware, having been on a trophy drought since winning the US Open five years ago. However, she was brutally swept aside by her Romanian opponent. GETTY IMAGES