

```

7. import time, sys
8.
9. print('''Rock, Paper, Scissors, by Al Sweigart al@inventwithpython.com
10. - Rock beats scissors.
11. - Paper beats rocks.
12. - Scissors beats paper.
13. ''')
14.
15. # These variables keep track of the number of wins.
16. wins = 0
17.
18. while True: # Main game loop.
19.     while True: # Keep asking until player enters R, P, S, or Q.
20.         print('{} Wins, 0 Losses, 0 Ties'.format(wins))
21.         print('Enter your move: (R)ock (P)aper (S)cissors or (Q)uit')
22.         playerMove = input('> ').upper()
23.         if playerMove == 'Q':
24.             print('Thanks for playing!')
25.             sys.exit()
26.
27.         if playerMove == 'R' or playerMove == 'P' or playerMove == 'S':
28.             break
29.         else:
30.             print('Type one of R, P, S, or Q.')
31.
32.     # Display what the player chose:
33.     if playerMove == 'R':
34.         print('ROCK versus...')
35.     elif playerMove == 'P':
36.         print('PAPER versus...')
37.     elif playerMove == 'S':
38.         print('SCISSORS versus...')
39.
40.     # Count to three with dramatic pauses:
41.     time.sleep(0.5)
42.     print('1...')
43.     time.sleep(0.25)
44.     print('2...')
45.     time.sleep(0.25)
46.     print('3...')
47.     time.sleep(0.25)
48.
49.     # Display what the computer chose:
50.     if playerMove == 'R':
51.         print('SCISSORS')
52.     elif playerMove == 'P':
53.         print('ROCK')
54.     elif playerMove == 'S':
55.         print('PAPER')
56.
57.     time.sleep(0.5)
58.
59.     print('You win!')
60.     wins = wins + 1

```
