

My first crawl

I am two weeks old. My eyes are open. At last I can see and hear. I can walk too.

My mother watches me as I explore. I sniff everything I find.

