

change the design of the user authentication pages, edit the copied html files.

Right-click on VS Code

For quick operation, in VS Code, you can use the right-click to copy and paste the directories.

Test

To test if everything is working, add the following one-line code in the signup.html file under the account directory.