

» WORLD VIEW OF THE FORTNIGHT

« My son needs me, my husband and I have been together since before I won in 2008. I think I now owe it to them to do something else.

– 37-year-old three-time Olympic champion sprinter Shelly-Ann Fraser-Pryce told Essence.com that she would retire after Paris 2024 Olympics. »

« I thought for the right price... for a million bucks, I reckon I could break that 50-metres record. – Former world champion swimmer James Magnussen told Sydney's SEN radio on Enhanced Games. »

800m

Canada's Summer McIntosh defeated Katie Ledecky in the 800m freestyle at the Southern Zone South Sectional Championships meet in Orlando, ending the American's 13-year unbeaten streak.

The 17-year-old clocked a national record of 8:11.39, beating Ledecky's time of 8:17.12. The previous Canadian record was set by Brittany MacLean at 8:20.19.

Ledecky was the three-time defending Olympic champion in the 800m and owns top 29 times ever in her favourite event, with McIntosh's time being the 17th-fastest ever in the 800m.

The 26-year-old American swimmer first set the world record in the 800m in 2013 and has broken it four times since, with the current one standing at 8:04.79, set at the 2016 Rio Olympics.

2029

Beijing will host the 2029 World Aquatics Championships, organisers said, bringing the multi-sport event back to China for the first time in nearly 20 years. The global governing body, World Aquatics, said China had won the bidding process for the event, which includes swimming, artistic swimming, diving, and water polo, among other sports. Shanghai hosted the 2011 World Championships. Singapore will host the next event in 2025, with Budapest hosting in 2027.

TRAGIC ACCIDENT

Marathon world record holder Kelvin Kiptum died in a road accident at age 24. The Kenyan, who set the world record of 2:00:35 at the 2023 Chicago Marathon, died alongside his coach on February 11. The tragic news has sent shockwaves around the athletic world, with tributes pouring in from across the globe. Kiptum is survived by his wife, Asenath Rotich, and their two children. AFP