

I DON'T KEEP SPECIFIC GOALS. I CHANGE MY PLANS ACCORDING TO THE SITUATION AND ADAPT

and eventually earning a place in elite cricket. He is filled with gratitude for every aspect of this journey.

Enduring long, sleepless nights cultivated his mental toughness, while the mornings and afternoons spent at the Dalhousie Athletic Club in Kolkata prepared him for the challenges that lay ahead. Now a confident Shami, one of international cricket's premier seamers, dressed in a sleek magenta velvet suit, exudes elegance as he strides into the grand ballroom of the majestic Taj Mahal

Palace Hotel in Mumbai to receive the Sportstar Aces Award for Sportsman of the Year (Team Sports). His lively manner and confident gait manifest the determination he shows on the field.

"I come from a place that has no facilities. I am grateful for everything — even a person who has contributed one per cent to my success. And it's because of this support that I could have that junoon," he says.

"Destiny takes you far, and I firmly

IN 2023

Was top wicket-taker of ODI World Cup 2023 with 24 scalps
Registered best figures in a World Cup knockout — 7/57 — during the match against New Zealand

His three fifiers in the World Cup is the most in an edition of the tournament

Took 13 wickets in four Tests against Australia at home

Star of the night: Mohammed Shami receives the Sportstar of the Year (Team Sports) award from Sunil Gavaskar, former India cricketer and Aces jury chairperson, and Sam Balsara, Chairman Madison World, during the Sportstar Aces Awards 2024 held in Mumbai. K. R. DEEPAK

