

BOUNCING FORWARD IN STYLE

P. V. Sindhu, returning after a long injury layoff, began the Indian charge in style, outclassing world No. 17 Supanida Katethong 21-12, 21-12 in the final, paving the way for a historic title win at the Badminton Asia Team Championships.

Weathering the storm:

P.V. Sindhu believes that facing tough times has strengthened her as a person, making the Asia Team Championships victory even more meaningful. GETTY IMAGES