

» FROM THE WORLD OF CRICKET

Aussies sweep Kiwis 3-0 in away T20I series

1 Australia began by pulling off a thrilling 216-run chase in the first T20I.

Australia issued a stern warning ahead of the T20 World Cup, to be held in June, by sweeping New Zealand 3-0 in an away T20I series. It began by pulling off a thrilling 216-run chase in the first T20I, owing to skipper

Mitchell Marsh and Tim David's firepower.

Leg-spinner Adam Zampa's four-fer gave the visiting side an unassailable 2-0 lead as the Kiwis were bundled out for 102, chasing 175.

Australia won a rain-truncated final by 27 runs to clinch a landmark 100th win in the format. Marsh, likely to lead the Aussies in the World Cup, was Player-of-the-Series for his 98 runs and two wickets in two games.