The Women's Premier League 2024 kicked off in style with a dazzling opening ceremony featuring Bollywood stars at the M. Chinnaswamy Stadium in Bengaluru.

Shahid Kapoor, Siddharth Malhotra, Tiger Shroff, Kartik Aryan, and Varun Dhawan added glamour to the event, but Shah Rukh Khan's arrival truly lit up the atmosphere.

The stadium echoed with cheers of "SRK... SRK" as Shah Rukh took centre stage, treating his fans to a captivating performance of 'Jhoom Jo Pathaan.' Each step he took ignited the crowd's enthusiasm, creating an unforgettable evening.

As the spectacle concluded, Shah Rukh, in his iconic pose, opened his arms wide, standing alongside all five team captains, marking the perfect end to the grand event.
