

» FROM THE WORLD OF FOOTBALL

GETTY IMAGES

Klopp's farewell begins in style

Jürgen Klopp's last season at Liverpool will be adorned by at least one piece of silverware after the Reds managed to beat Chelsea in the final of the Carabao Cup. Despite a series of injuries to key players, a young Liverpool team managed to win thanks to a late extra-time goal by defender and captain Virgil Van Dijk.

AFP

Bundesliga investor deal collapses

The German football league dropped the cash injection deal that promised immediate investment in return for eight per cent of future media rights after continuous fan protests in stadiums across the country. German fan clubs hold formidable control over the league's clubs thanks to the '50+1' rule that restricts the influence of external investors.

REUTERS

Premier League title race heats up

The race for the 2023–24 Premier League title looks set to go to the wire, with the top three sides separated by just two points. Arsenal eased past Newcastle 4–1 to stay within touching distance of Liverpool (60 points from 26 games), while a first-half Phil Foden strike was enough for Manchester City to edge Bournemouth.

AFP

All square in Calzona's first

Francesco Calzona's first game in charge at Napoli saw the club fight back from a goal down to draw 1–1 with Barcelona in its Champions League round of 16 tie. Robert Lewandowski opened the scoring for the visitor in the 60th minute. Napoli struck back through Victor Osimhen fifteen minutes later to leave the contest evenly poised ahead of the second leg.