

» CAPE TOWN TEST PHOTOLINE INDIA-SOUTH AFRICA

FOR MORE
IMAGES

1st

Relentless: Indian pacer Mohammed Siraj wreaked havoc with an incisive spell of new-ball bowling, ending with figures of 6/15 as South Africa crumbled to just 55 in the morning session of Day 1 at the Newlands. REUTERS

2nd

Stunning collapse: Just when India thought it was running away with the game, after getting to 153/4, the South African pacers struck back. The visiting side lost its last six wickets without adding a single run. AFP

3rd

A counter-attack for the ages: On a pitch where no other batter scored a fifty, South African opener Aiden Markram scored a splendid hundred in the second innings to offer his side a ray of hope. REUTERS