

4th

Scything through South Africa: While Aiden Markram was on a scoring spree, India's pace spearhead, Jasprit Bumrah, chipped away from the opposite end. His 6/61 ultimately made the chase relatively comfortable for India. REUTERS

5th

Waltzing home: Choosing to blast their way on a challenging pitch, Indian batters reached the 79-run target in the 12th over. It was a disappointing end for South Africa captain Dean Elgar, for whom this was the 86th and final Test before retirement. PTI

6th

One of a kind: India's quickfire chase also ensured that the Test became the shortest completed one in cricket history, with the match lasting just 642 balls. The 1-1 series draw means India has still never won a Test series in South Africa.

REUTERS