

GETTY IMAGES

2

Australia batter Shaun Marsh announced his retirement from professional cricket at the age of 40 following a Big Bash League match between Melbourne Renegades and Sydney Thunder. The elegant left-hander ended his career with 2,265 runs in 38 Tests and 2,773 runs in 73 ODIs. He also turned out in 15 T20Is for Australia.

INSTAGRAM / DAVID TEEGER

3

Just a week before the ICC Under-19 World Cup got underway, Cricket South Africa removed David Teeger as captain of the national team amid concerns over his safety. CSA felt that Teeger, who had made comments in support of Israeli soldiers, could be the target of anti-war protestors during the tournament. Though Teeger will be a part of the squad, all-rounder Juan James has replaced him as skipper.

PTI

4

Karnataka batter Prakhar Chaturvedi etched his name in history by becoming the first player to score 400 in the final of the Cooch Behar Trophy (U-19), against Mumbai. Opening the innings for Karnataka in its chase of Mumbai's first innings score of 280, Chaturvedi remained unbeaten on 404 off 638 balls when the match was declared drawn, with Karnataka taking the first innings lead. Chaturvedi broke Yuvraj Singh's record of the highest score in a Cooch Behar Trophy final. Yuvraj scored 358 in the final against Bihar in 1999. Chaturvedi's 404 is the second-highest overall individual score in the Cooch Behar Trophy, behind Vijay Zol's unbeaten 451 for Maharashtra against Assam in 2011.

AFP

5

New Zealand skipper Kane Williamson suffered a third injury setback in less than a year when he was forced to retire hurt during the second T20I against Pakistan after feeling tightness in his right hamstring. Williamson, who has been ruled out of the rest of the series, was batting on 26 off 15 when he was forced to leave the field. New Zealand won the game by 21 runs. Williamson had scored 57 in the first T20I, which the Kiwis won by 46 runs. Williamson's saga of injuries began during the opening match of IPL 2023, when he suffered an ACL tear, and then missed four matches of the ODI World Cup after fracturing his thumb in the game against Bangladesh.

AFP

6

The Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) has invited applications for a solitary position in the senior men's national selection committee. Though the notice put up on the board's website does not specify who it would replace from the current five-member committee, led by Ajit Agarkar, reports had earlier suggested that the axe could fall on Salil Ankola, since the BCCI does not want two selectors from the West Zone. Apart from Agarkar and Ankola, Subroto Banerjee, Shiv Sunder Das and S. Sharath are the other members of the panel, which surprisingly does not have a candidate from the North Zone.