Real Madrid gets its revenge

Real Madrid avenged its defeat in the Spanish Super Cup final against Barcelona a year ago, winning the bragging rights against its El Clasico rivals in Riyadh.

A first-half hat-trick by Vinicius Jr and a second-half strike by Rodrygo sealed a 4-1 win for the Los Blancos with Robert Lewandowski getting a goal back for the Blaugrana.

Jadon Sancho returns to Dortmund

Manchester United winger Jadon Sancho joined Borussia Dortmund on loan for the rest of the season after being frozen out at the club following his spat with manager Erik Ten Hag.

Sancho previously had four years at Dortmund, scoring 50 goals in 137 competitive games. The 23-year-old marked his return with an assist for Marco Reus against Darmstadt in the Bundesliga.

Salah rescues Egypt

Egypt needed a 97th-minute penalty from Mohamed Salah to help rescue a 2-2 draw against Mozambique in the Group B African Cup of Nations clash in Abidjan. Mostafa Mohamed had put Egypt in front following a dominant start but Mozambique hit right back, scoring twice in three minutes through Witi and substitute Clesio Bauque before the late equaliser.
