

FOR MORE IMAGES

» MELBOURNE TEST PHOTOLINE INDIA-AUSTRALIA

1st

Young cold blood: In a daring display of youthful audacity, 19-year-old Test debutant Sam Konstas fearlessly targeted India's pace ace Jasprit Bumrah, carting him for 34 runs in just 33 balls during the opening spell. His philosophy of scoop and scoop until you succeed worked as the opener scored a 65-ball 60. AFP

2nd

Fiery words: Virat Kohli and Sam Konstas clashed during the first innings, bumping shoulders and engaging in a heated exchange. The former Indian captain was subsequently sanctioned by the ICC for breaching the code of conduct. GETTYIMAGES

3rd

Dominance: Steve Smith brought up his second consecutive century as his innings of 140 helped Australia post 474 in the first innings. Smith registered his 34th Test hundred and his 11th against India, the most by any batter in the format. GETTYIMAGES