

4th

Dramatic collapse: India's innings appeared steady until the 40th over, with Yashasvi Jaiswal and Virat Kohli building a solid century partnership. However, a miscommunication led to Jaiswal's dismissal for 82, sparking a dramatic collapse as India tumbled from 153/2 to 159/5.

GETTYIMAGES

5th

Fightback: Nitish Kumar Reddy and Washington Sundar staged an epic recovery as the duo added 127 runs for the eighth wicket. While Sundar scored 50, the day belonged to Reddy who completed his maiden hundred. The 21-year-old became the first Indian batter to hit a Test ton at number eight. AP