South Africa qualifies for maiden WTC final

1 Kagiso Rabada and Marco Jansen put up a crucial ninth-wicket stand to see the Proteas through.

South Africa beat Pakistan in a nail-biting contest to take the lead in the two-match Test series and confirm its spot in the World Test Championship (WTC) 2023-25 final, set to take place in June. With a challenging target of 148 to win, South Africa found itself struggling at 99 for eight before lunch as Mohammad Abbas ripped through the batting line-up. Kagiso Rabada and Marco Jansen, who took six wickets in the second innings, put up a crucial ninth-wicket stand to score the remaining 51 runs and help South Africa qualify for its maiden WTC final.
