

« He (Andy Murray) has a unique perspective on my game as one of the greatest rivals I've had. He knows the pros and cons of my game – Novak Djokovic on his new coach Andy Murray »

« It's OK to accept and acknowledge that the end is near. But only because it allows you to enjoy what's happening right now. – NBA star Stephen Curry, in an interview »

26

Sophie Hediger, a member of Switzerland's snowboard cross team at the 2022 Beijing Winter Olympics, died following an avalanche at a mountain resort, the country's skiing federation said. The incident occurred on December 23 at the Arosa resort in Switzerland. Hediger, 26, competed at the Beijing Games in the women's snowboard cross and the mixed team version of the same event. Hediger achieved her first two World Cup podium finishes in the 2023-24 season. Her best result was a second place in St. Moritz in January.

3rd

India's Lakshya Sen delivered a dominant performance, outplaying rising French star Alex Lanier in straight games to finish third at the inaugural King Cup International Badminton Open. The 23-year-old from Almora defeated Lanier 21-17, 21-11, securing a handsome prize purse of Rs. 36 lakh. Lakshya had earlier lost to reigning world junior champion Hu Zhe'an of China in the semifinals, going down 19-21, 19-21, in a closely-contested match.

TOP CLASS

Ukraine's Oleksandr Usyk (right) retained his WBA (Super), WBO and WBC world heavyweight titles by unanimous decision against Britain's Tyson Fury to remain undefeated after an enthralling clash in an electric atmosphere at the Kingdom Arena. Giving up advantages in height, weight and reach to his much bigger opponent, Usyk fought superbly throughout to win 116-112 on all three judges' scorecards as he again defeated Fury after his success in May made him the undisputed champion. GETTYIMAGES