

SPORTSTAR OF THE YEAR (MALE)

Jasprit Bumrah

Age: 30

Discipline: Cricket

Jasprit Bumrah started 2024 by helping India beat England to maintain his side's winning run in the home Test series. The right-arm pacer took 19 wickets at an incredible average of 16.89 as India beat England 4-1. Bumrah continued his relentless form in IPL 2024, claiming 20 scalps at a miserly economy of 6.48, despite a below-par tournament for his side Mumbai Indians. But the 30-year-old reserved his best for the T20 World Cup, where his sharp bowling was vital in India's title win. Bumrah was nearly unplayable in the tournament, giving away just 4.17 runs per over while bagging 15 wickets. During the first Test against Bangladesh in Chennai, Bumrah reached 400 international wickets, becoming only the sixth Indian pacer to reach that mark.

Achievements in 2024 season:

- ★ T20 World Cup 2024 title
- ★ T20 World Cup 2024 Player of the Tournament
- ★ Third-highest wicket-taker in IPL 2024
- ★ Became the fastest Indian pacer to take 200 wickets in Test cricket

SPORTSTAR OF THE YEAR (FEMALE)

Manu Bhaker

Age: 22

Discipline: Shooting

Manu Bhaker scripted history at the Olympics when she became the first Indian after independence to win multiple medals in a single edition of the Games. Bhaker first won bronze in the women's 10m air pistol and secured another with Sarabjot Singh in the 10m air pistol mixed team event, also becoming the first woman from the country to win multiple medals in a single edition. The 22-year-old scored 221.7 to finish third in the eight-woman final of the 10m air pistol, winning the first medal for India at the Paris Games. It was India's fifth Olympic medal in shooting and the first since the London Games in 2012. At the previous edition of the quadrennial Games, Bhaker's weapon suffered a malfunction, leading to her missing the finals of both the 10m and 25m air pistol events. At the French capital this time, she seized the moment with two finishes on the podium. Before that, she bagged bronze in the women's 10m air pistol at the ISSF World Cup 2024 Stage II in Granada.
