

SPORTING MOMENT OF THE YEAR

Vinesh Phogat beating Yui Susaki at Paris 2024

In one of the most memorable moments in Indian sporting history, wrestler Vinesh Phogat defeated Yui Susaki in her first-round bout at the Paris Olympics, ending the Japanese wrestler's astounding 82-0 win record at the international level. Vinesh executed a perfectly timed takedown in the dying seconds of the match, and just like that, Susaki's perfect record was gone. The moment was even more significant as it ended a streak that had lasted seven years since Susaki made her international debut, encompassing the Olympics and four World Championships. Moreover, at the previous Olympics, no one had even been able to score a point against the Japanese wrestler.

Sheetal Devi and Rakesh Kumar's bronze win in Paralympics

In a heart-stopping finale, Sheetal Devi and Rakesh Kumar clinched the bronze medal in the mixed compound archery event at the 2024 Paris Paralympics. Trailing 116-117, the Indian duo staged a dramatic comeback, shooting four perfect tens in the final set to win 156-155 against Italy's Eleonara Sarti and Matteo Bonacina. Sheetal, the world's only female armless archer, has taken the Paralympics by storm. Her remarkable debut has equaled the Paralympic record in the bronze medal match, inspiring millions with her courage and determination. This bronze medal is a testament to her rapid rise and a proud moment for India.
