

LOOK OUT FOR...

NITISH KUMAR REDDY

With a match-winning 34-ball 74 in just his second T20I appearance and a hundred at the iconic MCG in just his fourth Test, you could argue Nitish Kumar Reddy already had a breakout year in 2024. But, with the unique skill set he brings to the table, the 21-year-old could seal his place as an all-format international for his country in 2025. His ability with bat and ball provides more balance to the team in 50-over cricket, and that could see him find a spot in the Indian squad for the ICC Champions Trophy.