MALVIKA BANSOD

One Indian shuttler to keep an eye on is Malvika Bansod. The 23-year-old from Nagpur had a promising 2024 on the BWF World Tour, racking up consistent results that included a runner-up finish at the Hylo Open and a quarterfinal appearance at the China Open.

Ranked just outside the top 30 in singles at the start of 2025, Malvika has shown consistent improvement and the potential to make a breakthrough.

She has already started the year on a strong note, securing a first-round victory over local player Goh Jin Wei at the Malaysia Open.
