

» THE YEAR THAT WAS SNAPSHOTS

MANU BHAKER EXORCISED HER TOKYO DEMONS en route to a historic double bronze at the Paris Olympics. From a 19-year-old in Tokyo who struggled to make the finals in all three of her events, Manu's journey in Paris was a testament to her resilience and relentless pursuit of excellence. The 22-year-old Manu became independent India's first athlete to win two medals in a single edition of the Olympics with her bronze-winning show in the 10m air pistol individual and 10m air pistol mixed team events. RITU RAJ KONWAR

THIS STRIKING IMAGE CAPTURES THE DRAMATIC MOMENT

when Tanzanian driver Yasin Nasser loses control of his Ford Fiesta MkII, sending it into a roll during the World Rally Championship Safari Rally in Kenya. Although it's a moment Nasser would likely prefer to forget, both he and co-driver Ali Katumba emerged unharmed, despite the car being completely destroyed. AFP
