Australia completes clean sweep against Sri Lanka

1 With the series victory, the Aussies finished second in the World Test Championship (WTC) table.

Australia completed a clean sweep in the two-match Test series against Sri Lanka to finish second in the World Test Championship (WTC) table. The first Test saw Josh Inglis and Steve Smith score hundreds, with the latter also crossing the 10,000-run mark in the format. However, the spotlight was on Usman Khawaja's double century as Australia piled on the runs and declared on 654 for six to beat the host Lanka by an innings and 242 runs. Nathan Lyon and Matthew Kuhnemann dominated with the ball, accounting for 16 of the 20 wickets that fell. Smith and Alex Carey were the top scorers for Australia in the second Test, while Lyon and Kuhnemann took 14 scalps between them to secure a nine-wicket win.
