

On target: Greenwood (right) is now second in the Golden Boot race with 13 goals, three behind Dembele. AFP in the Milan derby, while Moise Kean's brace and a Luca Ranieri header helped Fiorentina hand Simone Inzaghi's side its second league loss of the season. Inter is now four points behind Napoli, having played a game less.

Third-placed Atalanta also stuttered in its bid to overtake Inter after being held to a 1-1 draw by Torino but made amends by thrashing Verona 5-0 in its following game. The league's top scorer Mateo Retegui scored four goals as Atalanta sits one point behind Inter, having played a game more.

Randal Kolo Muani has had a bright start to his loan spell with Juventus from Paris Saint-Germain, scoring a brace in each of its wins against Empoli and Como. The Italian giant is now fifth in the table with 43 points, two behind Lazio, with both teams having played 24 games.

Ligue 1

Frenchman Ousmane Dembele

continued his scoring spree and bagged a hat-trick, while Goncalo Ramos scored a late brace as Paris Saint-Germain routed Brest 5-2.

The following week, Dembele kept his golden touch going and found the back of the net twice in the 4-1 win against Monaco, a game which also witnessed new signing Khvicha Kvaratskhelia's first goal for PSG.

With the results, the unbeaten French giant tops the standings with 53 points from 21 games.

Second-placed Olympique Marseille maintained the 10-point gap with PSG after recording wins against Olympique Lyon and Angers, with Mason Greenwood, Adrien Rabiot and Neil Maupay all finding the net. Greenwood is now second in the Golden Boot race with 13 goals, three behind leader Dembele.

OGC Nice and Monaco complete the top four, both on 37 points, with the former sitting third due to a better goal difference.

Points tally and standings accurate as of 10.2.2025.

« Paris Saint-Germain's Dembele continued his scoring spree and bagged a hat-trick against Brest »