Resistance: Towhid Hridoy delivered a resilient century after Bangladesh stumbled to 35 for five inside the first 10 overs. His 100 off 118 balls, coupled with a crucial 154-run partnership with Jaker Ali, helped the Bangla Tigers regain their footing in the contest. PTI

Roaring quick: Mohammed Shami showcased his brilliance once again, claiming his sixth five-wicket haul in ODIs while reaching the milestone of 200 wickets in the format. His efforts helped India bowl out Bangladesh for just 228 after being asked to field first. AP
