

VIJAY SONEJI

India completes 3-0 clean sweep against England

1 England was bowled out for just 214 in 34.2 overs, succumbing to a heavy 142-run loss in the third and final one-dayer.

England's dismal tour of India ended with another crushing defeat as it suffered a 3-0 whitewash in the ODI series. In the final match in Ahmedabad, England was bowled out for just 214 in 34.2 overs, succumbing to a heavy 142-run loss.

Earlier, India posted a formidable 356, with Shubman Gill leading the charge with a sublime 112 off 102 balls, while Shreyas Iyer contributed 78 and Virat Kohli added 52.

This series defeat marked a disappointing start for Brendon McCullum as England's white-ball coach, following an already underwhelming 4-1 loss in the T20I series.