

MARINERS HOLD THE FORT IN DOMINANT TITLE DEFENCE

The defending champion's intelligent planning and effective implementation was evident in its authoritative performance, accomplishing 16 wins, four draws, and just two losses in its successful pursuit of the title.

Amitabha Das Sharma

amitabhadas.sharma@thehindu.co.in

With a legacy spanning over 150 years in the country, Indian football has seen many historic clubs rise to the top. This season, Mohun Bagan Super Giant, the 136-year-old powerhouse, etched its name in history once again by securing the Indian Super League's League Shield for the second consecutive time, a testament to its consistency and dominance.

The immensity of this feat could be gauged from the wild celebrations of the otherwise reserved and undemonstrative head coach of The Mariners, Jose Molina (left).

The moment the referee blew the final whistle, signalling Mohun Bagan's solitary goal win over a visiting Odisha FC, the Spanish gaffer ran onto the pitch and started pumping his fists in a display of unbounded jubilation.

It was very much in line with the scenes that unfolded in the stands of the Salt Lake Stadium, where some 60,000 home fans went into raptures after seeing their team accomplish 52 points in 22 matches to reach a stage

