

Dembele scored hat-tricks against VfB Stuttgart and Brest in consecutive matches, becoming the first player to do so as a PSG player in all competitions.

Juventus a week ago.

Martinez netted the winner in the 1-0 win, becoming the first overseas player at the club to reach double figures in goals in six different Serie A seasons.

Defending champion Inter got fortune on its side with the victory, as its closest competitor, Napoli, which was leading the standings before the game, was beaten 2-1 by Como.

The winner was scored by 19-year-old Assane Diao, who became the youngest player with more than five goals in all European leagues this season.

Atalanta, third in the table, thrashed Empoli 5-0 and looks to be making a late surge to challenge for its first-ever top-division title. With 54 points, it is just three points short of Inter.

After 26 rounds, Italian Super Cup champion AC Milan remains out of contention.

Milan's manager, Sergio Conceicao, who took charge of the club in December 2024, now faces the sudden challenge of turning the tide for a side that was eliminated from the Champions League and missed out on a chance to enter the top six after a 1-2 loss to Torino.

Ligue 1

With 56 points and a game in hand, Luis Enrique's Paris Saint-Germain has a 10-point cushion over second-placed Marseille. Its most reliable striking option has been former Barcelona talisman Ousmane Dembele, who has found the net 16 times in all competitions.

On song: Ousmane Dembele has found the net 16 times in all competitions. AFP

Earlier this month, he scored hat-tricks against VfB Stuttgart and Brest in consecutive matches, becoming the first player to do so as a PSG player in all competitions.

Ligue 1, often derided outside of France for its quality, also gained a substantial reason to silence its critics in February.

France was the only country to see all of its clubs qualify past the league phase of the UEFA Champions League.

League standings and points tally are updated as of February 24, 2025.