

Old school: Kane Williamson anchored New Zealand's chase with a composed 81 off 120 balls but found little support at the other end. His resistance ended when he was stumped trying to take on Axar Patel. PTI

Mystery man: Varun Chakaravarthy bamboozled New Zealand's batting lineup with a five-wicket haul, becoming only the third Indian to achieve the feat in Champions Trophy history, as India sealed a 44-run victory. PTI
