

Decisive spell: Mitchell Santner turned the game in New Zealand's favour with a match-winning spell, removing Temba Bavuma, Rassie van der Dussen, and Heinrich Klaasen in quick succession. His figures of 3 for 43 in 10 overs sealed New Zealand's place in the final against India. REUTERS

Lone fighter: David Miller stood tall in South Africa's daunting chase of 363, fighting till the very end. He hammered four sixes and 10 fours, reaching his century off the final ball of the innings. Despite his efforts, South Africa fell short by 50 runs. AFP
