

6 } The number of batters who have made 9000 or more runs while opening the innings in ODI cricket. In the CT match against Pakistan in Dubai, Rohit Sharma became the latest opening batter to cross this landmark in ODIs. In doing so, he became the quickest to achieve this in fewest number of innings. The table below lists all the openers who reached this milestone in ODI cricket.

Quickest to reach 9000 ODI runs while opening the batting

Inns	Opener (for)	Achieved on	Runs	Ave.	100/50
181	R. Sharma (Ind)	23 Feb 2025	9019	54.99	30/44
197	S. Tendulkar (Ind)	23 Feb 2003	9064	49.53	31/40
231	S. Ganguly (Ind)	14 Oct 2007	9057	42.13	19/58
246	C. Gayle (WI)	24 Sep 2017	9051	39.35	22/47
253	A. Gilchrist (Aus)	15 Feb 2008	9071	36.87	16/52
268	S. Jayasuriya (SL)	22 Aug 2004	9006	35.18	18/53

The figures for the runs and average are calculated until the end of the match*

287 } The number of innings Virat Kohli needed to reach 14000 runs in his ODI career. During his unbeaten 100 in the CT match against Pakistan in Dubai, he became only the third batter in ODI history to reach this landmark after team-mate Sachin Tendulkar and Sri Lankan Kumar Sangakkara. However, Kohli is the quickest to reach this milestone in the fewest innings (287).

Inns	M	Batter (for)	Achieved on	Runs	Ave.	Score	Opp	Venue
287	299	V. Kohli (Ind)	23 Feb 2025	14085	58.20	100*	Pak	Dubai
350	359	S. Tendulkar (Ind)	6 Feb 2006	14009	44.19	100	Pak	Peshawar
378	402	K. Sangakkara (SL)	8 Mar 2015	14065	41.74	104	Aus	Sydney

The figures above for the runs and average are calculated until the end of the match*

20 } The number of Indian batters who have made 3000 or more runs in ODI cricket. In the CT match against Australia in Dubai, K. L. Rahul became the latest Indian batter to cross this landmark in ODIs. In doing so, he became the third quickest to achieve the career milestone in fewest innings. From the list below, it will be noticed that Rahul has left behind several top Indian batters from the previous generation to reach this milestone much quicker than them.

Quickest to reach 3000 runs in ODI cricket for India

Inns	M	Batter (for)	Achieved on	Runs	Ave.	Score	Opp	Venue
72	73	S. Dhawan	20 Jan 2016	3000	43.48	126	Aus	Canberra
75	78	V. Kohli	14 Feb 2012	3001	46.17	15	SL	Adelaide
78	84	K. L. Rahul	4 Mar 2025	3009	48.53	42*	Aus	Dubai
79	83	N. S. Sidhu	5 Nov 1994	3005	40.61	28	WI	Kolkata
82	87	S. Ganguly	12 Jan 1999	3036	40.48	38	NZ	Napier

The figures for the runs and average are calculated until the end of the match*

68 } The number of sixes hit by Rohit Sharma in all ICC ODI tournaments (World Cup + Champions Trophy). Combined, this is the maximum by any batter in these two prestigious world ODI tournaments. He went ahead of Chris Gayle's tally of 64 sixes when he hit his only six in the CT match semifinal against Australia in Dubai on 4 March 2025.

6s	WC	CT	Batter (for)	M	Inns	Balls	6/inns	Balls/6
68	54	14	R. Sharma (Ind)	43	43	2256	1.58	33
64	49	15	C. Gayle (WI)	52	51	2201	1.25	34
49	43	6	G. Maxwell (Aus)	35	30	655	1.63	13
49	35	14	D. Miller (SA)	23	31	1040	1.58	21

Note: Rohit's 54 sixes are the most hit by any player in the WC history

All records are correct and updated until 9 March 2025.