

REUTERS

NAPOLI'S EFFORTS AGAINST INTER MILAN PAID OFF WHEN SUBSTITUTE PHILIP BILLING (CENTRE) SCORED EIGHT MINUTES AFTER HE CAME ON TO SNATCH A POINT

Atletico edged past Athletic Club thanks to a goal from in-form Julian Alvarez but failed to take the chance to go to the top of the table after suffering a last-minute collapse against Getafe. Alexander Sorloth gave Atletico the lead in the 75th minute but Angel Correa's late sending-off gave Getafe's Mauro Arambarri the determination to produce a last-gasp quick-fire double to take all three points.

Only one point separates the top three, with Barcelona leading with 57 points, level with Real Madrid in second and one ahead of Atletico in third.

Bundesliga

Bayern Munich succumbed to just its second defeat of the season after blowing a two-goal lead at home against relegation-threatened VfL Bochum. Raphael Guerreiro's first-half brace was quickly halved by Bochum's Jakov Medic.

Joao Palhinha's sending-off two minutes after the break boosted the visitor's spirits. Ibrahima Sissoko nodded in the equaliser and Matus Bero scored past league-debutant Jonas Urbig.

Bayer Leverkusen, however, failed to cut down the gap with the leader after succumbing to a 2-0 defeat against Werder Bremen. Romano Schmid and Justin Njinmah scored for Bremen to keep the reigning champion trailing the Bavarians by eight points.

Borussia Dortmund continued its irregular form in the league after securing a 2-0 win against FC St. Pauli before falling to a 1-0 loss at home to Augsburg. The result leaves the Black and Yellow languishing in 10th on the table.

Serie A

The first spot was up for grabs