

REUTERS

when Napoli hosted Inter Milan at the Diego Armando Maradona Stadium. The visitor took the lead courtesy of a sublime free-kick from Federico Dimarco and let the opponent control the rest of the game. Napoli's efforts paid off when substitute Philip Billing scored eight minutes after he came on to snatch a point.

Inter and Napoli secured hard-fought wins against Monza and Fiorentina, respectively, in the following weeks and sit first and second, with one point separating them.

Third-placed Atalanta made up for its goalless draw against relegation-battling Venezia by thrashing Italian giant Juventus 4-0. The league's top scorer Mateo Retegui scored from the spot while Marten de Roon, Davide Zappacosta and Ademola Lookman added the rest.

With 58 points, Atalanta remains three points from the top in third, while Juventus sits fourth with 52.

Ligue 1

Paris Saint-Germain's firing attack continued their form as they thrashed both LOSC Lille and Stade Rennes 4-1 to take a 16-point lead at the top of the table.

Ousmane Dembele (above, right) scored three goals across the two games, including a stoppage-time brace against Rennes, to take his tally to 20 this season, with his closest contender for the Golden Boot being Olympique de Marseille's Mason Greenwood with 12.

Second-placed Marseille fell further behind in its title challenge after conceding a stoppage-time winner against RC Lens in the latest game week.

(All results updated as of March 10)

« Only one point separates the top three in La Liga, with Barcelona leading the table with 57 points »