

Key player – Jip Janssen

₹54 lakh

Tamil Nadu Dragons

Tamil Nadu Dragons has assembled a star-studded team, with Jip Janssen, Amit Rohidas, Thomas Sorsby, Tom Craig and Blake Govers being the standout players. India forward Selvam Karthi adds local flair to the team, with Australia's Nathan Ephraums complementing him in attack. The Dragons have three world-class drag flick options in Janssen, Rohidas and Govers, acquired for a combined ₹1.29 crore.

Rohidas is also regarded as one of the world's finest first-rushers in penalty corner defence. Head coach Rein van Eijk believes the HIL be a valuable stepping stone for Karthi in his career. Van Eijk has also earmarked defender Anand Y and midfielder Chandan Yadav from the Indian junior team to make an impact.

Key player – Shamsheer Singh

₹42 lakh

Delhi SG Pipers

Delhi SG Pipers has assembled a solid team with the addition of Indian stars Shamsheer Singh, Jarmanpreet Singh, Raj Kumar Pal and Varun Kumar. However, the standout pick at the auction was Rohit, the Indian men's junior team defender, who fetched ₹40 lakh — just two lakhs less than Shamsheer. The 20-year-old Rohit is a fearless first-rusher in penalty corners and a powerful drag flicker, poised to take the league by storm. Former Indian men's team coach Graham Reid will be at the helm, with recently retired PR Sreejesh named as mentor.

