

3rd

Twilight saga: India bowled under lights, and the pink ball proved effective in unsettling the host. Opener Usman Khawaja succumbed to Jasprit Bumrah's precision, edging a delivery to the slips. AFP

4th

Revival: Marnus Labuschagne survived the first day's twilight period and reaped the rewards of better batting conditions on the second day. He struck a patient fifty to best his poor form in the run-up to the second Test. GETTY IMAGES