Headache: Travis Head slammed another hundred (152 off 160 balls) and added 241 runs with Steve Smith for the fourth wicket. This was Australia's first 200-plus stand in a Test since the WTC final 2023. It was the same pair of Head and Smith which put together a 285-run partnership against India. AFP

Soft hands, deep impact: Opening the batting, K. L. Rahul once again emerged as India's most dependable batter in the series, scoring a vital 84 off 139 balls. Later, Ravindra Jadeja's 77-run knock, combined with contributions from the lower order, helped India avoid the follow-on. AFP
