

6th

Blinder: After dropping K. L. Rahul on the first ball of day four, Steve Smith redeemed himself with a stunning one-handed catch at first slip to dismiss the same batter. Rahul attempted a backfoot cut against Nathan Lyon, but Smith read the play perfectly and executed a brilliant catch. AFP

7th

Final flourish: After bowling India out for 260, Australia aimed to extend its lead of 185 runs. The batters adopted an aggressive approach, which resulted in the loss of several wickets. Eventually, Australia declared at 89 for seven, setting a lead of 274. AFP

8th

Levelled: After just 13 balls into the 275-run chase, the rain played a decisive role in the match's outcome as dark clouds gathered over the stadium. This forced both teams to shake hands and settle for a draw. AFP

