

Mitchell Starc on target

2} The number of bowlers who have the distinction of claiming a wicket off the very first ball of a Test match on three separate occasions. In the recent Test match in Adelaide, Australia's Mitchell Starc matched the achievement of West Indian left-arm pacer Pedro Collins. Overall, 27 bowlers, on 35 occasions, have taken a wicket off the first ball of a Test match. Additionally, four other bowlers have accomplished this feat on two occasions. The first table lists those bowlers who have achieved this multiple times. The latest batter to lose his wicket off the first ball of a Test match is India's Yashasvi Jaiswal, thus making him the 31st batter to fall victim to this occurrence for the 35th time. Jaiswal became the seventh Indian opener on this unwanted list, for the ninth time. Notably, two batters — India's Sunil Gavaskar and Bangladesh's Hannan Sarkar — hold the dubious record of being dismissed off the first ball three times. In contrast, no other batter has been dismissed in this manner more than once.
