O

n the court, Jannik Sinner is both the proverbial irresistible force and the immovable object. The 23-year-old Italian possesses the nerves and precision of a diamond cutter and the killer instinct of a hired assassin. Sinner boasts perfect technique and smart tactics that he implements brilliantly. His power is devastating, yet he knows when and how to temper it with finesse.

Off the court, Sinner is the epitome of diplomacy and empathy. He defuses controversy, praises everyone from tournament staff to tennis greats, and exudes confidence and humility with refreshing authenticity.

This sui generis athlete fittingly displayed all his skill
