Quick gun, Brydon: After smashing a rapid 17-ball 31 to push England's first innings total to 165, Carse put India in a spot of bother with his lively spell of three for 29. The timely dismissals of Suryakumar Yadav, Dhruv Jurel, and Washington Sundar opened up the game for England. GETTYIMAGES

Ice cool: As wickets fell regularly, Tilak Varma anchored the chase and kept India's hopes alive, finishing with an unbeaten 72 from 55 balls. The 22-year-old leapt in joy after hitting the winning runs – the only moment he showed emotion on the field. R. RAGU

Suryanamaskar: Tilak Varma's composed innings to successfully chase down a challenging 166-run target received widespread acclaim from the cricket fraternity, starting with captain Suryakumar Yadav. PTI
