

inspiring Simran Shaikh, a batter from Dharavi, Asia's largest slum. Dottin's experience and all-round abilities will be crucial for Gujarat Giants, which is looking to turn its fortunes around after two underwhelming seasons.

Delhi Capitals will hope for standout performances from Nandini Kashyap and the promising Niki Prasad, while UP Warriorz and Mumbai Indians aim to deliver quality cricket at their respective home grounds.

With the tournament moving beyond major cities and the fan base steadily growing, the WPL's expansion signals a new chapter for women's cricket in India.

Getting fans onboard: Arun Dhumal, IPL Governing Council chairman, said the WPL expansion aimed to boost fan engagement in franchises' home markets. R. V. MOORTHY

