

frustrated, as Atletico played out a 1-1 draw with Villarreal. Gerard Moreno gave Villarreal the lead from the spot in the 29th minute, while Samuel Lino equalised in the 58th minute to spare the blushes for Diego Simeone's men.

But the team that stole the show was undoubtedly Hansi Flick's Barcelona, which delivered 90 minutes of supreme attacking football to secure a 7-1 win over Valencia. The Catalans had five different scorers — Frenkie De Jong, Ferran Torres, Raphinha, Robert Lewandowski and Fermin Lopez, who bagged a brace. Valencia centre-back Cear Tarrega scored an own goal for Barcelona's seventh, while Hugo Duro was Los Che's solitary scorer.

Real Madrid remains top of the standings with 49 points, while city rival Atletico sits second with 45. Barcelona occupies third with 42 points, while Athletic Bilbao, which played out a goalless draw against Leganes, stays fourth with 40.

Serie A

Juventus' unbeaten league record this season was snapped by Napoli, who came from behind to snatch a 2-1 win. On-loan striker Randal Kolo Muani gave Juve the lead on his debut, but Andre Frank Zambo Anguissa levelled before veteran Romelu Lukaku (facing page, left) converted from the spot to hand Napoli all three points.

The result extended Napoli's league winning streak to seven and moved it to the top of the table with 53 points from 22 games, while Juventus remains fifth with 37.

Antonio Conte's Inter Milan remains a threat to Napoli's title

Ruthless: Barcelona beat Valencia 7-1, with Frenkie De Jong (centre), who grabbed the opening goal, among the five scorers for the Catalans. AP charge, brushing aside Lecce 4-0. The win narrowed Napoli's lead to three points, with Inter having a game in hand.

League top scorer Mateo Retegui kept Atalanta in third and within touching distance of the top two after scoring twice in its 2-1 comeback win over Como.

AC Milan staged a dramatic fightback against struggling Parma to win 3-2. Christian Pulisic converted

« Inter Milan remains a threat to Napoli's title charge, sitting three points behind with a game in hand »