HARRY KANE SCORED HIS 17TH GOAL OF THE CAMPAIGN IN BAYERN MUNICH'S 2-1 WIN OVER SC FREIBURG

a penalty, while Tijjani Reijnders and Samuel Chukwueze scored in stoppage time to lift the Italian Super Cup champion to seventh in the table, just outside the European spots.

Ligue 1

Paris Saint-Germain maintained its unbeaten league record, drawing 1-1 with Stade de Reims. New signing Khvicha Kvaratskhelia made an immediate impact, assisting Ousmane Dembele's goal, which was cancelled out nine minutes later by Keito Nakamura.

Olympique de Marseille failed to capitalise on PSG dropping points and fell to a 2-0 defeat against OGC Nice. Roberto De Zerbi's side is second with 37 points from 19 games, 10 behind leader PSG.

Nice, on the other hand, managed to climb into the top four with the win and sits one point behind AS Monaco, which beat Stade Rennais 3-2 to hold onto third place.

Bundesliga

Bayern Munich shrugged off its shock midweek Champions League defeat to Feyenoord, beating SC Freiburg 2-1 for its fifth consecutive league win.

Harry Kane scored his 17th goal of the campaign, and defender Kim Min-jae nodded in the winner as the Bavarians took a healthy six-point lead at the top of the table.

Second-placed Bayer Leverkusen's title defence took a hit after squandering a two-goal lead against RB Leipzig. David Raum initiated the comeback late in the first half after Patrik Schick and Aleix Garcia had given Leverkusen the advantage.

The equaliser came through

Leverkusen defender Edmond Tapsoba, who headed the ball into his own net to gift Leipzig a point.

Borussia Dortmund also wasted a two-goal lead and was held to a draw by Werder Bremen in its first game following the sacking of manager Nuri Sahin.

The result leaves the Black and Yellow reeling in 11th place, with 26 points from 19 games.

Eintracht Frankfurt, adjusting to life without top scorer Omar Marmoush, played out a 2-2 draw with Hoffenheim, maintaining third place with 37 points, 11 behind leader Bayern.

All standings are considered till January 27.
