

1st

FOR MORE
IMAGES

Samsonite: Sanju Samson (107 off 50 balls) etched his name in history as the first Indian to score consecutive T20I centuries, achieving the feat in the opening game in Durban. His blistering hundred, reached in just 47 balls, is the fastest by an Indian against South Africa in T20Is. AP

2nd

Roaring return: Playing an international match after 166 days, Gerald Coetzee struck off his first ball to remove opener Abhishek Sharma cheaply. He later picked up wickets of Hardik Pandya and Rinku Singh to keep India's score to 202/8.

AFP