

» FROM THE
WORLD OF CRICKET

GETTY IMAGES

Maiden WBBL title for Melbourne Renegades

1 Melbourne Renegades registered a seven-run win over Brisbane Heat in a rain-affected final.

Melbourne Renegades clinched its maiden Women's Big Bash League (WBBL) title with a seven-run win over Brisbane Heat in a rain-affected final. Renegades, playing their first WBBL final, posted a score of 141 for nine, with major contributions from opener Hayley Matthews (69), while Charli Knott took three wickets. In search of a record third title, Heat lost two early wickets before rain arrived in the fourth over and halted play, resulting in a revised target of 98 in 12 overs. Heat were reeling at 37 for five and needed 19 runs in the final over but fell short of the target.