Trafford as Marcus Rashford and Joshua Zirkzee grabbed a brace each to send Everton packing. United is now ninth in the table with 19 points from 13 games.

Tottenham continued its unsteady form, following up the win against City with a 1-1 draw against Fulham to move into seventh place, two points behind Nottingham Forest in sixth. Bournemouth's Justin Kluivert and Evanilson etched their names in Premier League history by becoming the first player to score a hat-trick of penalties and the first player to win three spot-kicks in a game, respectively, during their 4-2 win against Wolves.

After his stint as interim manager of Manchester United, Ruud van Nistelrooy will return to the league in a permanent role, taking charge of Leicester City, who sacked Steve Cooper after its loss to Chelsea. Under stand-in manager Ben Dawson, Leicester went on to lose 1-4 to Brentford in its last match before Nistelrooy took charge.

giant, however, suffered a blow as striker and top scorer Harry Kane was forced off the pitch with an injury during the game. The Englishman was coming off scoring a hat-trick in Bayern's previous league fixture against FC Augsburg, taking his tally to 14 goals this season.

Dortmund, on the other hand, came into the match on the back of its sixth home win in the league this season, cruising past SC Freiburg 4-0.

Dortmund is fifth in the table with 20 points, 10 fewer than leader Bayern. RB Leipzig dropped to fourth in the table after consecutive losses to Hoffenheim and VfL Wolfsburg, conceding nine goals across the two games.
