Jaisball: Yashasvi Jaiswal began the chase with a six off just the second ball of the innings. The 22-year-old counter-attacked during his 77 off 65 balls as the home team attempted to level the series, but he couldn't find partners at the other end, with India losing wickets at regular intervals. Historic win: Mitchell Santner picked up 13 wickets in total as New Zealand took an unassailable 2-0 lead in the three-match series, confirming its first-ever series win on Indian soil. The 113-run loss also meant India lost its first Test series at home in 12 years, an end of an 18-series long winning streak. K. BHAGYA PRAKASH
